

BIOINTAKE

Designed and manufactured in the UK by bulk handling specialists Perry Engineering, this range of pre-galvanised equipment can be supplied to bespoke requirements or modular built on-site.

Economy Auger Intake System

This intake has been designed to be trickle fed & offers a lower cost alternative to our full BioIntake system.

- 3m long intake hopper
- 3m long discharge auger with option to extend to 6m overall length
- Auger can be inclined up to 45°
- Capacity of 60 cubic meters per hour in G50 W30 forestry chip
- All galvanised construction
- 5.5kW & 3kW drive motors
- Fully pre-wired option available with operation station
- Supplied with auto cut off safety control switch to satisfy EU Machinery Directive
- Optional splashback & side extensions

Picture above includes optional extension to sides & optional splashback

